LEAVE RULES (SAMPLE TEXT)

Chapter I: Preliminary

1. These rules govern the grant of leave to government servants to whom they apply. They shall be read together with the general conditions of service applicable to the post.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, "leave" means any kind of leave described in Chapter II, and "sanctioning authority" means the authority competent to grant it.

3. Leave is earned by duty only. A period spent on foreign service counts as duty for the purpose of these rules if contribution towards leave salary is paid.

Chapter II: General Conditions

4. Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When the exigencies of the public service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

5. The authority granting leave may not alter the kind of leave applied for, except at the written request of the government servant concerned.

6. A government servant on leave shall not take up any service or employment elsewhere without obtaining the previous sanction of the competent authority.

Chapter III: Kinds of Leave

7. Earned leave. The earned leave admissible to a government servant shall be 30 days in a calendar year, credited in advance in two instalments of 15 days each on the first day of January and July of every year.

8. Half pay leave. The half pay leave admissible to a government servant in respect of each completed year of service shall be 20 days, and may be granted on medical certificate or on private affairs.

9. Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half pay leave due may be granted on medical certificate, subject to the conditions laid down in rule 10.

Chapter IV: Other Leave

10. Extraordinary leave may be granted to a government servant when no other leave is admissible, or when other leave is admissible but the government servant applies in writing for extraordinary leave.

11. Casual leave is not recognised as leave and is not subject to these rules. A government servant on casual leave is not treated as absent from duty.

12. Leave applications shall ordinarily be submitted at least seven days before the date from which leave is required, except in emergencies.
